

Demons of the Mind Film Series 2017

Psychology and Cinema

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

UEA University of East Anglia

CHSTM

Centre for the History of Science,
Technology and Medicine

Supported by wellcometrust

Presented by The Science Entertainment Lab
and the Demons of the Mind Research Group

Thursdays in March, April, May, and June 2017

International Anthony Burgess Foundation

Screenings are FREE and open to the public

I
A
B
F

The Cabinet of Dr Caligari (1920)

2 March, 6.30pm

"The most amazing story ever screened"

Introduced by historian of psychology
Michael Pettit

Repulsion (1965)

23 March, 6.30pm

"A classic chiller of the 'Psycho' school!"

Introduced by film scholar
Tim Snelson

Memento (2000)

27 April, 6.30pm

"Some memories are best forgotten"

Introduced by historian of science
William R. Macauley

Shutter Island (2010)

11 May, 6.30pm

"Some places never let you go"

Introduced by science communication scholar
David A. Kirby

Silver Linings Playbook (2012)

25 May, 6.30pm

"Watch for the signs"

Introduced by historian of medicine
Elizabeth Toon

The Falling (2014)

6 June, 6.30pm

"Terrific film-making... a rush of blood to the head"

Introduced by film scholar
Amy C. Chambers

For further details on the film series and the Science and Entertainment Lab:

 @SciEntLab #DemonsOfMind
 thescienceandentertainmentlab.com anthonyburgess.org/event_category/demons-of-the-mind

Getting to the International Anthony Burgess Foundation:

The venue is on the corner of Cambridge St. and Hulme St. just off Oxford Road (turn down Hulme Street). There is very limited parking immediately outside the Engine House, but there is an NCP car park on Hulme Street.

The Engine House, 3 Cambridge Street
Manchester, M1 5BY